THE FIELD ARTILLERY JOURNAL

307
255
19

INDEX TO VOLUME III

CAPTAIN LOUIS T. BOISEAU
FIELD ARTILLERY, UNITED STATES ARMY
Editor

PUBLISHED QUARTERLY by
THE UNITED STATES FIELD ARTILLERY ASSOCIATION
601 STAR BUILDING, WASHINGTON, D. C.
$3.00 PER ANNUM

copy 2
Dupl 1st
NIBB

INDEX

FIELD ARTILLERY JOURNAL, VOL. III

Activity of Field and Heavy Artillery in the Russo-Japanese Campaign, and the Influence of the War Experience on the Use of Artillery today (translated from the German) 559
Adjustment of Artillery Harness.—Major C. P. Summerall 29
Ammunition Supply: A Map Problem.—Major H. G. Bishop 17
Ammunition Supply.—Major H. G. Bishop 455
Ancient Combat, The.—du Picq (translated from the French) 515
Army Service Schools, The.—Major H. G. Bishop 53
Artillery Ammunition Expended by Bulgarian Army 620
Artillery at Williamsburg, May 4-5, 1862.—Captain J. H. Stevens 85
Battle Action of Artillery in Battle of Liao-Yang (translated from the German) 378
Battlework of Artillery According to Russian and Foreign Regulations (translated from the Russian) 344
Eight cm. Ehrhardt-van Essen Shrapnel (translated from the French) ... 270
Field Service and Drill Regulations: A Criticism and Suggestion.—Major Dwight E. Aultman 512
Fire for Effect.—Major Tréguier (translated from the French) 5
General Orders No. 142 140
German and French Training in Eastern Armies 621
Gun-pits for a Field Battery.—Captain Clarence Deems, Jr. 275
Heavy Field Artillery in French Manoeuvres 619
Height of Burst of Shrapnel.—Major Tréguier (translated from the French) 283
Instructions for the Operation of Field Artillery in Combat; The New Drill Regulations of the Russian Army, 1912 (translated from the French) 245
Japan Adopts the 4-gun Battery 620
Light Howitzers in French Manoeuvres 619
Masked Fire of the Artillery.—General Percin (translated from the French) 96
Memorandum on the Relation of Promotion to Organization 301
Modern Artillery Fight.—General Rohne (translated from the German) .. 217
New Phase in the development of Artillery.—General von Richenau (translated from the German) 58
New Siege Matériel 620
Notes on the Employment of Special Details 107
Notes on Field Artillery Organization 285
Pack Artillery: Its Name, Requirements, Uses, and Tactical Role.—Major A. S. Fleming 45
Portions of French Field Artillery Regulations of 1910 Relating to Ammunition Supply (translated from the French) 116
Practical Suggestions as to the Conduct and Direction of Fire by a Battalion Commander.—Major Brooke Payne 65

30-1976

Practical Tests of Field Artillery Telephones.—Major Brooke Payne..... 504
Russian View of Supporting Decisive Infantry Attack with Artillery (translated from the German)..... 71
Report of Board of Officers to Determine Type of Artillery..... 423
Sea Transportation of Horses.—Lieutenant John S. Hammond..... 82
Shrapnel Sheaf and the Number of Balls Which Cover Horizonal Targets at Different Heights and Intervals of Burst..... 485
Some Observations of the Indian Army.—Captain M. E. Locke..... 363
Some Field Expedients.—Captain E. D. Scott..... 151
Some Teachings of the War in the Balkans on the Tactical and Technical Employment of Artillery (translated from the French)..... 610
Sub-caliber Practice.—Captain E. D. Scott..... 135
Study on the Efficiency of Fire.—Major Tréguier (translated from the French) 321
Training and Instruction of a French Field Artillery Battalion..... 189
Visual Signaling for Field Artillery.—Major A. S. Fleming..... 260
What Lessons are to be Deduced from the Russo-Japanese War for the Use of Field Artillery in War (translated from the German)..... 226